SELECTION CRITERIA

Food Vendor Application

Bairro Português

Saturday 22 March 2025

3pm-9pm

Audley St and Regent St, Petersham

Purpose: Bairro Português celebrates the Portuguese cultural heritage of Petersham through a vibrant street festival featuring traditional and contemporary food and entertainment, encouraging local and cultural connection.

Bairro Português aims to champion local food vendors and suppliers in the Inner West. Businesses wishing to participate in Bairro Português must demonstrate a strong connection to Petersham or the Portuguese diaspora or the Inner West Council Local Government Area.

Inner West Council prioritises artists and businesses that are based within the Inner West Council local government area, as well as:

- Businesses and artists whose offerings align with Council's Community Strategic Plan;
- Local businesses and artists with particular regards to those who support the local community year round;
- Those offering participatory activities that engage a broad range of the community

Stallholders must comply with our Environmental Guidelines and Requirements of operation of a Temporary Food Stall

Selection of food vendors is the final decision of Council and no further correspondence will be entered into. Council reserves the right to amend the selection criteria at any time without notice. Incomplete applications may not be considered.
