Introduction

Overview

Welcome to the application form for Inner West Council's Perfect Match Street Art program. Grant funding of $5000 - $20,000 is available to support the production of contemporary street artworks in public places that tackle unwanted graffiti and benefit the Inner West community.

Grant Guidelines

Before completing this application, please refer to the Property Guidelines to understand how the program runs and your expected deliverables.

Note: Incomplete applications and/or applications received after the closing date will not be considered

Other Council grant streams

Council offers a number of grant programs to support a culturally diverse, progressive and sustainable Inner West.

Applicants may only submit one application each round. Once submitted it is not possible to transfer applications to another stream. For more information on our Arts programs and opportunities visit innerwest.nsw.gov.au/living-arts
